A Proclamation

- WHEREAS, the year 2018 marks the 101st year of the Girl Scouts cookie-selling program, which evolved into the largest entrepreneurial training program for girls in the world; and
- WHEREAS, in 1917, the Mistletoe Troop first baked and sold Girl Scout cookies in their high school cafeteria in Muskogee, Oklahoma, as a service project; and
- WHEREAS, from humble beginnings as a way for Girl Scout troops to finance their own activities, the Girl Scout Cookie Program has become one of the most powerful and successful financial literacy tools for girls; and
- WHEREAS, the Girl Scout Cookie Program teaches five essential skills — goal setting, decision making, money management, people skills, and business ethics; and
- WHEREAS, in keeping with the fast pace of the modern world and the Girl Scout Mission to provide girls with learning opportunities for the future, Girl Scouts launched Digital Cookie, adding a digital layer to the Girl Scout cookie program that teaches vital 21st century business skills, including e-marketing, digital money management, online dashboard usage, and e-commerce; and
- WHEREAS, today, more than 59 million women are Girl Scout alumnae, and 2.7 million girls and adult volunteers are active members; and
- WHEREAS, Girl Scouts consistently make positive changes in their communities, thanks in part to cookie sales, and doing what they can to make the world a better place; and
- WHEREAS, through the dedication, time, and talent of thousands of trained volunteers of different backgrounds, abilities, and areas of expertise, Girl Scouts of the Green and White Mountains serves thousands of girls in grades K-12 in Vermont and New Hampshire.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, do hereby proclaim February 23-25, 2018 as in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 22nd day of February, A.D. 2018
