A Proclamation

WHEREAS, the International Association of Insurance Professionals (IAIP) has achieved an illustrious record of professional achievement and dedicated service to its clients and the nation and is deserving of public recognition and commendation; and

WHEREAS, this highly regarded association is composed of approximately 200 local organizations numbering close to 4,000 members employed in various fields of the insurance industry, and

WHEREAS, the major purpose of this organization is to encourage and foster educational programs designed to broaden the knowledge and the understanding of the insurance field and to cultivate increasing friendship, loyalty, and desire for service among its members; and

WHEREAS, IAIP's members benefit from the opportunity to associate with other industry professionals, enabling them to share solutions, problems, and experiences and thereby gain better understanding of the industry and also increase alliances; and

WHEREAS, IAIP includes within its code of ethics a pledge of service that is honest, thorough, gracious, and professional, with a promise to perform in an honorable manner, and uses noble words which motivate each member's pursuit of his or her career; and

WHEREAS, this organization has been recognized as a vital resource by the Independent Insurance Agents of America, the American Association of Managing General Agents, the Insurance Institute of America, and the Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters.

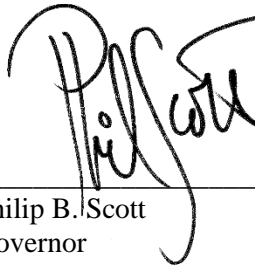

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, do hereby proclaim May 20-27 as

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INSURANCE PROFESSIONALS WEEK

in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 18th day of May, A.D. 2018
