

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, the maple sugaring industry is a long-standing part of the culture, history and identification of Vermont; and

WHEREAS, many Vermonters have positive memories associated with the maple sugaring industry, both as a producer and consumer; and

WHEREAS, the Vermont Lake Monsters continue to use their summertime platform as a place to create lifelong memories with people you care about; and

WHEREAS, the Vermont Lake Monsters will temporarily change their identity to pay tribute to the maple sugaring industry of Vermont; and

WHEREAS, the pride associated with Vermont and the maple products it produces will have its day outside of our normal sugaring season.

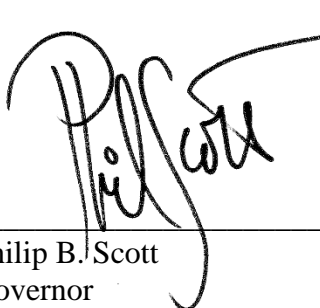

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, do hereby proclaim August 4, 2018 as in Vermont.

MAPLE KINGS DAY

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 25th day of July, A.D. 2018

Philip B. Scott
Governor
