

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, land surveyors have played an important role in society — resolving questions of land boundaries and providing the framework for advancing infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, throughout the history of the United States, many of our most prominent historic figures, such as George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and Abraham Lincoln, have practiced the profession of surveying; and

WHEREAS, these figures have set a high standard for diligence, service and ethics, which still guide the efforts of surveyors today; and

WHEREAS, Professional Land Surveyors of the United States possess the expertise to research, gather, and analyze data for the retracement and establishment of property boundaries, which are vital to our system of land ownership; and

WHEREAS, expertise of the Professional Land Surveyor is obtained through a combination of education and experience over a career spanning many years in the classroom, field and office; and

WHEREAS, established in 1964, the Vermont Society of Land Surveyors is celebrating its 55th year of promoting surveying excellence through its educational programs and scholarships.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim March 17-23, 2019 as in Vermont.

LAND SURVEYORS WEEK

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 8th day of March, A.D. 2019.

Philip B. Scott
Governor
