

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, the future of Vermont rests on the hopes and dreams of its young people; and

WHEREAS, mentors offer valuable encouragement, motivation and hope for our youth by providing a consistent adult friend and role model, guiding them toward making positive, healthy choices; and

WHEREAS, youth with mentors are more likely to graduate from high school and attend college and other post-secondary education programs; and

WHEREAS, youth with mentors exhibit improved resiliency, better relationships with peers and family members, and feel more connected to their community and school; and

WHEREAS, youth with mentors are more likely to volunteer in their communities, participate in sports and extracurricular activities, and hold a leadership position in a sports team, club, student council or other organization; and

WHEREAS, local mentoring programs provide a connection between older and younger generations, and strengthen ties among all members of the community; and

WHEREAS, since 2013, MENTOR Vermont has served as a statewide mentoring partnership, and is committed to closing the mentoring gap by providing support and connection for youth mentoring programs and volunteer mentors throughout Vermont; and

WHEREAS, Vermont mentoring programs, MENTOR Vermont, and other public and private organizations throughout the state are committed to working collaboratively to increase the number of quality mentoring matches statewide.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim January 2020 as in Vermont.

MENTORING MONTH

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 22nd day of January, A.D. 2020.

Philip B. Scott
Governor

Brittney L. Wilson
Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs

