

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

- WHEREAS, Vermont has a rich and storied tradition of hunting and angling that dates back further than the state itself and carries forward to this day; and
- WHEREAS, hunting and angling continue to be an integral component of the cultural fabric of communities throughout the state, and offer participants an opportunity to connect with nature on a personal level while simultaneously providing food security, a sense of self-sufficiency and both mental and physical health benefits; and
- WHEREAS, Vermont’s sportsmen and women were among the first conservationists to support the establishment of the Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department to conserve fish, wildlife and their habitat, and through their license fees helped fund state efforts to provide for healthy and sustainable natural resources; and
- WHEREAS, upon realizing that license fees alone were insufficient to restore and sustain healthy fish and wildlife populations, sportsmen and women supported self-imposed excise taxes on firearms and ammunition, fishing tackle and motorboat fuels to raise additional conservation funds; and
- WHEREAS, the Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department is still funded primarily by sportsmen and women, through this American System of Conservation Funding, a “user pays-public benefits” approach that is widely recognized as the most successful model for funding fish and wildlife management in the world; and
- WHEREAS, in 2019 alone, Vermont’s sportsmen and women generated $15.32 million through this system to support the conservation efforts of the Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department; and
- WHEREAS, 161,000 hunters and anglers support the state’s economy by spending more than $442 million while engaged in their pursuits; and
- WHEREAS, this spending supports over 6,814 jobs in Vermont and generates $50 million in state and local taxes; and
- WHEREAS, National Hunting and Fishing Day was established in 1972 to celebrate and recognize hunters and anglers for their immense contributions to fish and wildlife conservation, and to our society.

NOW, THEREFORE,

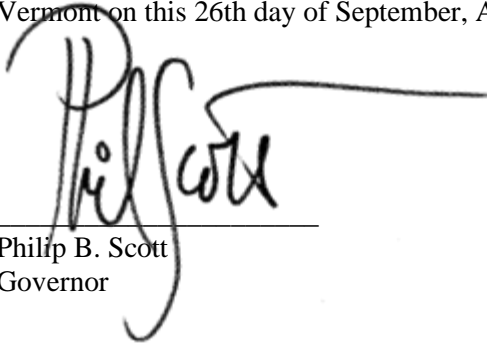

I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim September 26, 2020 as

HUNTING AND FISHING DAY

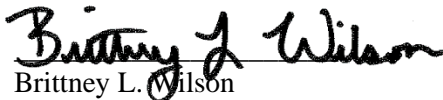

in Vermont recognize the many social, cultural, economic and ecological benefits of our time-honored traditions of hunting and angling.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 26th day of September, A.D. 2020.

Philip B. Scott
