

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, every student in Vermont should have access to an effective education; and

WHEREAS, Vermonters agree that continuing to improve the quality of education is an issue of importance to our state’s leaders; and

WHEREAS, Vermont recognizes the essential role that an effective and accountable system of education plays in preparing all children to be successful adults; and

WHEREAS, Vermont has many different types of public and nonpublic schools, as well as families who educate their children in the home; and

WHEREAS, Vermont has many high-quality, dedicated teaching professionals in all types of education environments; and

WHEREAS, it is important for parents in Vermont to explore and identify the best education options available to their children; and

WHEREAS, research demonstrates that providing children with multiple education options improves academic performance; and

WHEREAS, School Choice Week is a national celebration recognized by millions of students, parents, educators, schools and community leaders for the purpose of raising public awareness of the importance of effective education options for children.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim January 24-30, 2021 as in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 8th day of January, A.D. 2021.
