

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, it is believed Vermont is the only state in the country that has an all-encompassing emergency services memorial honoring law enforcement (local, county, state and federal), fire, emergency medical services, fish and game wardens, and corrections officers; and

WHEREAS, each year, the Memorial Committee hosts a ceremony to honor and remember Vermonters who gave their lives in the line of duty; and

WHEREAS, emergency service providers are public servants, showing up to help those in need, including putting themselves in situations they know are dangerous and risking their own personal safety to protect others; and

WHEREAS, it is important for us to take time to thank all emergency service providers and remember those who have lost their lives in service to their communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim September 26, 2021 as

EMERGENCY SERVICES REMEBRANCE DAY

in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 24th day of September, A.D. 2021.
