

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, individuals, both career and volunteer - from public safety dispatchers, law enforcement, fire, emergency medical services, and emergency management to national guard, transportation, search and rescue, dive, and other organizations in the public safety sector - come together as first responders to protect and aid the public in the event of an emergency; and

WHEREAS, first responders are our first and best defense against all emergencies, whatever their nature, that threaten our communities, and are ready to aid the people of Vermont 24 hours a day, 7 days a week; and

WHEREAS, first responders are highly trained, specialized workers who contribute their expert skills for the public good, often for no pay; and

WHEREAS, courageous and selfless concern for others and the duty to protect and serve are commonly held values among first responders; and

WHEREAS, first responders risk their own safety and well-being in the performance of their duties to protect Vermonters; and

WHEREAS, Vermont, at the request of the Interfaith Council of the Northshire in Bennington County, thanks each and every first responder for their invaluable and selfless contributions to communities across our beloved State and wishes to honor them for their abiding service.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim October 28, 2021 as

NORTHSHIRE FIRST RESPONDERS APPRECIATION DAY

in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 25th day of October, A.D. 2021.

Philip B. Scott
Governor
