

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, America's National Teenager was founded in 1970 for the purpose of recognizing young women of intellect and leadership. Participation in America's National Teenager allows outstanding teens and preteens from across the country to be recognized for their commitment to excellence in learning and character, thus rewarding their accomplishments with college tuition scholarships; and

WHEREAS, America's National Teenager is a scholarship program with awards based on scholastic achievement, leadership, school, community involvement and most importantly individuality; and

WHEREAS, business owners, community leaders and family members who support the dreams of young women return dividends to their communities, state and nation; and

WHEREAS, the young women selected as representatives are aware of the importance of education and realize the impact they will have on the future of Vermont; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate this program and the recent accomplishments of Vermont state winner, Rachel Howlett, being selected as Miss National Sweetheart for 2019-2021.

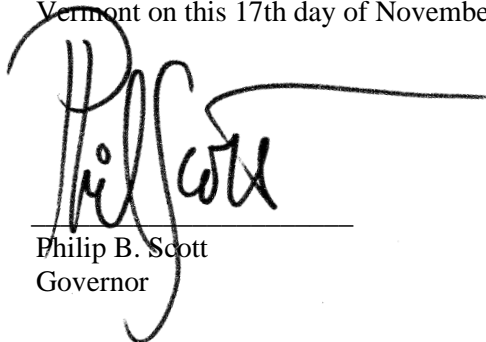

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim November 20, 2021 as

NATIONAL TEENAGER SCHOLARSHIP DAY in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 17th day of November, A.D. 2021.

Philip B. Scott
Governor

Brittney L. Wilson
Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs