

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, childhood apraxia of speech affects 1-in-1,000 children, causing children to have significant difficulty learning to speak and is among the most severe speech deficits in children; and

WHEREAS, the act of learning to speak comes effortlessly to most children, those with apraxia require early, appropriate, and intensive speech therapy, often for many years to learn to speak; and

WHEREAS, without appropriate speech therapy intervention, children with apraxia will have diminished communication skills, but are also placed at high risk for secondary impacts in reading, writing, spelling, and other school-related skills; and

WHEREAS, such primary and secondary impacts diminish future independence and employment opportunities and challenge the ability to become productive, contributing citizens if not resolved or improved; and

WHEREAS, public awareness about childhood apraxia of speech in Vermont is essential for families of children with this neurological disorder and the professionals who support them to achieve the needed services for those learning to use their own voice; and

WHEREAS, our highest respect goes to these children, as well as their families, for their effort, determination, and resilience in the face of such obstacles.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim May 14, 2022 as in Vermont.

APRAXIA AWARENESS DAY

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 13th day of May, A.D. 2022.
