

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, Vermont career development practitioners serve across the State in a variety of settings, and are committed to helping individuals increase self-understanding of their abilities, interests, values, and goals; and

WHEREAS, the Vermont/New Hampshire Career Development Association (VT/NH CDA), a dual-state division of the National Career Development Association (NCDA), supports career development practitioners to obtain and maintain certifications, credentials, and continuing education to best serve those seeking career assistance; and

WHEREAS, Vermont career development practitioners champion the NCDA's mission and vision for "all people to attain fulfilling career and life goals; and

WHEREAS, Vermont career development practitioners see potential in everyone by celebrating diversity; and

WHEREAS, career development assistance is a community partnership effort involving the education system, the home and family structure, business, industry, and a variety of community agencies and organizations; and

WHEREAS, Vermont career development practitioners, along with NCDA and VT/NH CDA, actively promote and celebrate National Career Development Month.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim November 2022 as in Vermont.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT MONTH

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 31st day of October, A.D. 2022.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Philip B. Scott", is written over a horizontal line.

Philip B. Scott
Governor

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Brittney J. Wilson", is written over a horizontal line.
Brittney J. Wilson
Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs