

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, 2022 marks the 92th anniversary of Cub Scouting in the United States, a family program for boys and girls in kindergarten through fifth grade; and

WHEREAS, the Cub Scouts through the Boy Scouts of America (BSA) provides the nation’s foremost youth program of character development and values-based leadership training, which helps young people be “Prepared For Life”; and

WHEREAS, Cub Scouting continues to focus on reaching and serving youth to help them grow into good, strong citizens; and

WHEREAS, Cub Scouting provides youth with programs and activities that allow them to try new things, provide service to others, build self-confidence and reinforce ethical standards; and

WHEREAS, by focusing on unification, Cub Scouts accomplish incredible things for young people and the communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, with 92 years of experience, Cub Scouts through the BSA bring a wealth of knowledge to programs that deliver youth cornerstone experiences with benefits that last a lifetime; and

WHEREAS, Cub Scouting promotes activities that lead to personal responsibility and high self-esteem.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim November 16, 2022 as in Vermont.

CUB SCOUT DAY

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 10th day of November, A.D. 2022.

Philip B. Scott
Governor

Brittney J. Wilson
Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs