

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week has been celebrated the first week of May since 1985 (beginning on the first Sunday of the month) to honor the people who embody the spirit of service; and

WHEREAS, it is important to honor our dedicated federal, state, tribal, and local public servants; and

WHEREAS, when we support our public servants with the recognition and resources they deserve, our communities are safer; and

WHEREAS, government workers are doing critical work that positively affects all of us every day; and

WHEREAS, public servants are faced with challenges every day, demonstrating their commitment to our communities; and

WHEREAS, this week, we recognize the indispensable contributions of our Nation's public servants; and

WHEREAS, we honor all our public servants who perform critical roles across our state.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim May 5 – 11, 2024, as

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK
in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 23rd day of April, A.D. 2024.
