

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, pollinator species such as birds and insects are essential partners of farmers and ranchers in producing much of our food supply; and

WHEREAS, pollination plays a vital role in the health of our national forests and grasslands, which provide forage, fish and wildlife, timber, water, mineral resources, and recreational opportunities as well as enhanced economic development opportunities for communities; and

WHEREAS, pollinator species provide significant environmental benefits that are necessary for maintaining healthy, biodiverse ecosystems; and

WHEREAS, the State of Vermont has managed wildlife habitats and public lands such as Vermont forests and grasslands for decades; and

WHEREAS, the State of Vermont provides producers with conservation assistance to promote wise conservation stewardship, including the protection and maintenance of pollinators and their habitats on working lands and wildlands.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim the June 17 – 23, 2024, as

POLLINATOR WEEK
in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 13th day of June, A.D. 2024.

Philip B. Scott
Governor
